

OFFERING OF PRO BONO SUPPORT 2020

APPLICATIONS ARE SOUGHT FROM ORGANISATIONS THAT WOULD LIKE FREE SUPPORT IN THE AREAS OF POLICY, BUSINESS CHANGE, GOVERNANCE, RESEARCH OR EVALUATION SERVICES

Allen + Clarke is New Zealand's leading public policy consultancy.

We are calling for expressions of interest (EOI) from government and non-government organisations for policy, research, evaluation, business change, governance or other related services.

We will undertake work at any stage of your project – from project planning, design and undertaking the project to post-project evaluation or review.

This year we are looking to take on additional pro bono projects in recognition of the challenges that organisations may be facing during the COVID-19 recovery phase.

We will support four or more projects that:

- + align with Allen + Clarke's core purpose and values, which at their heart are about mobilising passionate and capable people to tackle the challenges facing society
- + are able to be undertaken between August 2020 and January 2021
- + comprise between 50 and 150 hours each.

EOIs need not be overly detailed.

An online form is available at www.allenandclarke.co.nz/pro-bono-support-2020 along with further information about our pro bono programme.

All applications must be received by 5pm Friday 31st July 2020.

HOW WE CONTRIBUTE TO SOCIETY:

Our company purpose is:

"To mobilise passionate and capable people to tackle the challenges facing our society".

The work we do makes a difference. Effective and high quality public policy has the potential to greatly improve people's health and wellbeing, enjoyment of life, personal freedoms, and wider economic, social and environmental health.

We also contribute to improved societies through:

- + our pro bono work
- + supporting our staff to volunteer
- + complimentary desk guides for the public sector on a wide range of policy and evaluation topics
- + complimentary training sessions for the public sector on machinery of government topics.

We work by putting together project teams with complimentary skills and expertise. This means that we often partner with other agencies and individuals who share similar values and purposes to our own.
